

A Study of Hebrews

Lesson 12

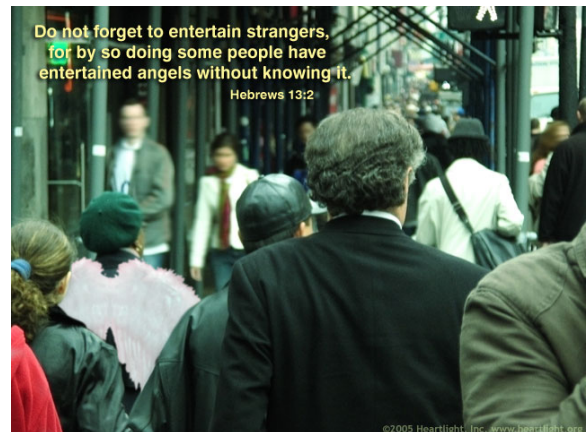

Hebrews 13:1-25

Practical Exhortations

(Hebrews 13:1-6)

Much of Hebrews 13 sounds like a disjointed list of things to do and not do, but that is not a fair assessment. The Hebrew writer does share or reiterate a number of practical exhortations. In Hebrews 13, we have his important closing thoughts.

This chapter can be divided into three parts. The first being the exhortations in vv. 1-19, followed by a closing prayer in vv. 20-21, and final greetings in vv. 22-25.

1. Make a list of the final exhortations in verses 1-6.

Warning Against False Teaching

(Hebrews 13:7-16)

2. What leaders are being spoken of in verse 7?

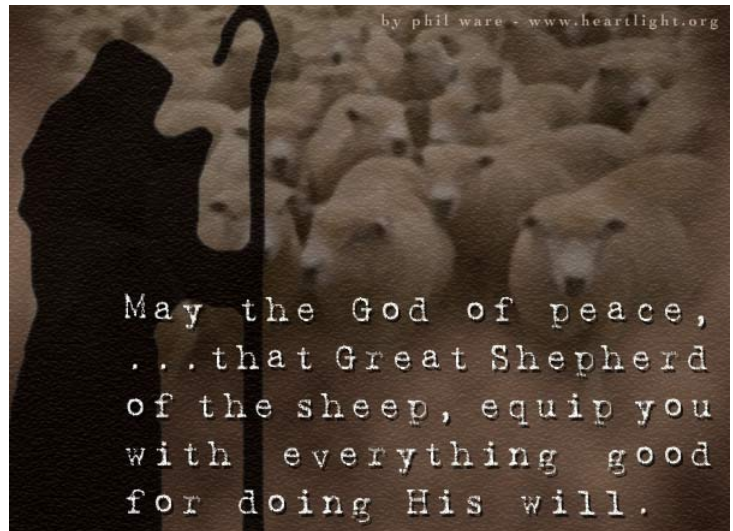

3. Hebrews 13:8 is the most familiar verse in the entire letter. Please describe the significance of this verse.

4. What altar is being spoken of in Hebrews 13:10?
5. What does Hebrews 13:11-13 teach us about the place of Jesus' crucifixion?
6. According to 13:15; what sacrifice are we to offer?

Final Words

(Hebrews 13:17-25)

7. Why does the Hebrew writer again turn to the subject of following leaders in 13:17?
8. How difficult is the job of the leaders in 13:17? Why?

9. What was the Hebrew writer's prayer requests?
10. What did the Hebrew writer pray?
